

WILLIAM PENN UNIVERSITY

RWANDAN GENOCIDE MEMORIAL MONDAY, APRIL 8TH • 7:00 PM CHIEF MAHASKA ROOM, ATKINS MEMORIAL UNION

In 1994, more than one million lives were lost during 100 days of the Rwandan genocide. Survivors faced with the challenge of forgiving and nation re-building.

Join William Penn University for a brief history of the genocide, a featured film, and a discussion on how the country has changed in the past two decades.

Event and refreshments sponsored by the United World Club and the Office of Special Projects & Government Relations.

Questions? Contact Graduate Assistant for International Programs
Karolyn Wojtowicz at wojtowiczk@wmpenn.edu or 641-673-1294.

